Description

Many of today's successful companies started out in the owners' home. Some may be in the garage, others in the basement or a spare room made into an office.

These home based companies have the same requirements as their counterparts in office buildings. As they grow, many may need to rent commercial office space.

Data is multi-sourced, including directories, government filings, office financing and other public and proprietary sources.

File is selectable by zip, state, county, MSA, area code or radius.
